

JASON'S TOTALLY TENNIS & SOUTH HILL WOODS TENNIS CLUB

GDPR Guidance (March 2018):

Privacy Policy for Club & Coaching Members

The privacy policy should be provided to existing members & players before 25 May 2018 and provided to new members & players when they sign up for membership or tennis coaching

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") and UK data protection laws, the controller is Jason's Totally Tennis (the "Venue") of South Hill Woods Tennis Club, Toots Wood Road, BR2 0PB

About this document

This privacy policy sets out the way we process your personal data and we've created this privacy policy to make sure you are aware of how we use your data as a member of our tennis venue and coaching program

How we collect your information

We may collect your personal data in a few limited ways, namely:

- Directly from you, when you fill in an application for membership, when you make enquiries on our website, when you provide information via the Venue's club booking software or court booking system, or when you interact with us during your in various other ways (for example, where you enter a competition, renew your membership, sign up for a course or lessons);
- From someone else who has applied for membership or coaching on your behalf (for example a family member or your tennis coach who has provided us with your contact details for that purpose);
- From the LTA (for example, where the LTA passes on your details to us in connection with a complaint or query you have raised about our Venue).

The types of information we collect

We may collect the following types of personal data about you:

- Contact and communications information, including your contact details (including email address(es), telephone numbers and postal address(es) and records of communications and interactions we have had with you);
- Information regarding your age or gender.
- Certain other information which you volunteer when making use of your membership benefits (for example, when making court bookings or making use of other Venue facilities).

We will also collect data about your health, medical conditions & allergies so that we can make reasonable adjustments and offer appropriate first aid or assistance if the need should arise.

How we use personal data

Personal data provided to us will be used for the purposes set out at the time of collection and, where relevant, in accordance with any preferences you express.

More generally, we will use your personal data for the following purposes:

- Administration of your membership or coaching, including:
 - informing you about court / facilities opening hours;
 - informing you of changes to class times;
 - informing you of renewal dates for bookings;
- Fulfilment of orders for goods and services, including court bookings; Where this is necessary for the performance of a contract (including any written terms and conditions relating to your membership) with you;
- Research and statistical analysis about who is playing tennis in our Venue;
- Communication about our activities that we think may be of interest to you;
- Storing your details on the software platform we use for our online Venue member & player management database / court booking system.
- Where this is necessary for our legitimate interests (for example in increasing use of our Venue's facilities and participation in the game generally);
- Promoting our Venue and promoting goods and services of third parties (for example, equipment suppliers and organizers of tennis events) where we think this will be of interest to you;

Where this is necessary for our legitimate interests (or the legitimate interests of a third party), and/or where we have your consent, as applicable.

Your marketing preferences

We will always respect your wishes in respect of what type of communications you want to receive from us and how you want to receive them. There are some communications, however, that we need to send you regardless of your marketing preferences in order for us to fulfil our contractual obligations to you as a member of our Venue or Coaching program. Examples of these essential service communications are:

- Records of transactions, such as payment receipts (as applicable).
- Lesson related mailings such as your coaching renewal reminders, notices of group changes, meetings and information about venue closures and holiday opening hours.

You are in control of how we communicate with you. You can update your choices and/or your contact details by contacting us at:

Sharing your information with others

We do not sell or share your personal data for other organisations to use other than as set out below.

Personal data collected and processed by us may be shared with the following third parties, where necessary:

- Our employees, coaches and volunteers, for the purposes of administering your membership or lessons and giving you access to the benefits to which you are entitled;
- Organizers of tennis events that you/your child are part of;
- The LTA in order to update results of any event you have taken part in;

How long your information is kept

We keep your personal data only for as long as necessary for each purpose we use it. For most data, this means we retain it for so long as you are attending coaching or have a valid membership and for a period of six years after your last interaction with us (for accounting, tax reporting and record-keeping purposes).

Your rights

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it. You can also withdraw your consent, where this is the basis for our processing your data (without affecting the lawfulness of our previous processing based on consent).
- Request the transfer of your personal data to another party.

Please note that the above rights are not absolute, and we may be entitled to refuse requests where exceptions apply.

Contact and complaints

If you have any queries about this privacy policy or how we process your personal data, or if you wish to exercise any of your legal rights, you may contact the club's office in the first instance:
